OUR TRAIL

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

The M. P. Wells is Disabled at Stony Point Yesterday.

The M. P. Wells, on her trip yesterday, and when near Stony Point, broke the crank wheel on the left side, knocking out both cylinder heads and throwing the pitman in the river.

There were about forty people on board bound for the Ripley Fair, and it is useless to add that they were scared.

The Wells went to the bank immediately, and Captain Edgington, who is one of the most obliging river men in this section, telegraphed for another boat, which put the crowd into Ripley for the fair all right.

The boat will likely be laid up about a week, but the Silver Ware will be in her place until her repairs are complete.

The C. and O. freight office at Portsmouth does over $10,000 worth of business a month at that place.

The C. and P. and V. Railroad shops will be removed from Portsmouth to Red Bank, near Cincinnati.

"Cider" Ricketts was in the Police Court yesterday to answer to the charge of a p. d. He got the customary.

Nat Sapp has moved his grocery from the property belonging to John Zweigart to the building lately occupied by E. F. Powell as a confectionery.

A wagon loaded with lumber broke a front wheel on Third street yesterday afternoon, but was repaired sufficiently to resume its journey last night.

Two carloads of Kelley's Hobos went West yesterday afternoon on the Hinton Accommodation train. They were a sorry looking set of individuals.

Hon. A. L. Peterman of Lexington will instruct the Boyd County Teachers' Institute, which meets at Catlettsburg August 20th and continues four days.

No. 1, the C. and O.'s early morning "after" was one hour and thirty minutes late this morning, caused by a freight engine being off the track at Portsmouth.

Protracted services at the Mission Chapel will close tonight. Rev. J. M. Evans suffering from a severe cold. There were sixteen conversions last night.

The Louisville Southern Railroad, running from Louisville to Burgin, where it connects with the Cincinnati Southern, was sold yesterday at Louisville for $1,000,000.

After an illness of six months the Ashland Coal and Iron Company is starting its plant with non-union miners, the others still refusing to go to work for the money offered.

Bela Ogden of Milford has on hand 380,000 pounds of tobacco, about a good-sized crew for some of the lads we saw with freckled shirt bosoms around the streets in this city.

One of our local fishermen, on his last raid up the river, caught a four pound catfish, and it was suggested to him to either eat it, or to give it to him to eat. He said he would eat it, but he would give it to him to eat.

The Ripley Fair enjoyed a boom from something in the neighborhood of three hundred in attendance. We are not sure as to whether they were all Mayville people though.

Dr. C. P. Meredith of Eminence, Grand Warden of Kentucky Oddfellows is in our city on a prospecting tour, with a view of locating. He seems to be pretty well struck with our city, and we hope he will become one of our citizens.

Miss Bessie Coons's many friends in this city will be pleased to know that she will take her place as Assistant Postmaster at Augusta on Tuesday next. We are more than satisfied that the good people of Augusta will find that they have more than a prize in this accomplished young lady.

Mr. J. C. Bowell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

The trim little steamer Laurence will leave her float at 7 o'clock this evening with another excursion or outing in the cool river breeze for two hours, and it is one of the most enjoyable trips one can take. Clifford's Orchestra will furnish the music, and you get a two hours ride, all the music you can listen to and all the good, quiet enjoyment you can wish for—all for ten cents.

Look Out!
A Grand Picnic given by Lorenzo Lodge No. 3094, G. U. O. O. F., at Mayville, Ky., August 17th. Everybody invited.

PERSONAL

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a line to that effect.

Miss Katie Bierley is visiting friends in Ripley.

M. R. Gilmore is in Cincinnati today on business.

Germantown item in Bracken Chronicle, "Mrs. E. L. Browning and children of Mayville are boarding at Charles Calvert's during the last season."

Edgar Mitchell of Bessemer, Ala., is in the city visiting friends and relatives. Edger is an old Mayville boy, and of course his presence is very desirable in our midst.

Mrs. Sam Simons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brod, Mr. Charles Vicory, Mr. John Wells and daughter, Miss Bertie Ratty and Miss Bridget Moley went to the Ripley Fair this morning.

Notice.
Want all of my customers to know that I have connected myself with J. P. Nash, the tonsorial artist, at No. 227 Market street, where I hope to have all my friends come. Yours truly,
J. J. BEUTLER, Barber.

If you want to make a substantial gift to some relative or friend who has moved away from this section, send them The Mayville Republican. Price $1.50 per year.

WE HAD A CINCH!

The Maysvilles Too Fast Company For the Irontons.

There was a very small crowd out yesterday to see the locals win the most listless game of the season from Irontons.

The locals went right in and hammered out a victory and quit.

Rooney went in to make faces at the locals, and during the five innings he stayed, he was battered all over the lot.

At the end of the fifth inning, after our boys had made a triple, five doubles and five singles, which scored eleven runs in the first part of the game, the contest would have certainly been an "interesting" one.

Wellner will pitch for the Maysvilles today, and the game promises to be a lively one, and there should be a big crowd on hand, as this will be the last game the locals will play at home for some time.

Rooney was taken out and Landerbach was substituted and did well, his field giving him perfect support.

Sparks twirled for the home team, and he has a record of fourteen strike outs.

He was touched up pretty freely at critical times and was poorly supported.

The following is the score:

ECHOES FROM THE GAME AND OTHER BASE BALL NEWS OF INTEREST.

The game this afternoon will be called at 3 p. m.

Wonder if Chan Jefferson witnessed the slaughter yesterday?

The locals will take a trip up through Central Kentucky next week.

Wellner has made a host of friends here, and they will be out this afternoon to give him a hand.

Frank's slashing drive into "Salter" Brown's garden patch was a beauty, and it caught the crowd.

Rooney's delivery was slower than a gravel train on an up grade, and as easy to hit as a dish of ice cream.

There ought to be a large attendance at today's game in order to show our boys their efforts to win are appreciated.

Wadsworth offset his timely two-bagger that sent in two runs by being costly errors at third, two of them three hits.

Cox played first base like Tom Tucker yesterday. He also did great work with stick, getting four hits, one of them being a double.

Davis was unfortunate yesterday. He was the only one of the locals that didn't get a hit. He hit the ball hard enough, but it always landed smack in an Irontonian's hands.

The locals play the Irontons again this afternoon. Landerbach, who finished the game for the Irontons yesterday and did so well, will be in the box today for the visitors. The Irontons played a good game in the field yesterday, and had they not been weak in the box they would have made the locals play ball.

A large load of campmeisters came in from Ruggles yesterday.

A REGULAR DAISY

He Deserts a Wife and Five Children in This City.

The following, clipped from The Columbus (Ind.) Daily Times, may be of some interest to some people in this city: Early in April, 1893, a stranger came to this city, and gave his name and residence as James D. Samuels, Mayville, Kentucky.

He worked at various places about the city at odd jobs, and finally for a farmer near the city. He talked freely about his Kentucky home, saying he had been married, but that his wife was dead and that he soon expected to come into possession of considerable farm land in Mason county, Kentucky, which he would here. He joined the Holiness Band and took an active part in the street and hall services of the Salvation Army, and is well known to many of our citizens. Some three or four months ago he got into the good graces of one of the sisters of the Holiness Band, a widow lady drawing $12 a month pension money, and went to board with her. He soon began paying attention to the widow, and poured his tale of woe into her eager ears. How lonely things seemed to him as he wandered around from place to place alone in the world, and of the acres of Bluegrass soil he soon expected to come into his possession, and that if he would only consent to marry they would be only so happy, etc. The widow listened to his plaintive pleadings and then thought of her own Sam and the $12 he contributed to her wants monthly, and she hesitated, but finally consented to marry him. About this time a butcher's passbook, with the name "J. S. Beckett, Mayville, Ky.," was found in his possession by the widow, and on questioning him about it he said the book belonged to a friend of his at Mayville and he had accidentally brought it away with him. He then said he had a cousin at Mayville, Dr. Samuels, a prominent physician and surgeon, to whom they could write as to his identity. A letter was then written to the Clerk of the Mason County Circuit Court, giving all the details of the man and his doings here and the answer soon came from John Jones, Clerk, that the man's real name was J. S. Beckett, that Dr. Samuels was no relation, but had, he thought, treated Beckett for a wound he had once received by the hands of a colored man on account of undue familiarity with his family affairs, stabbing him with a knife, that Beckett was a fraud and had deserted his wife and children in Mayville over a year ago and had not since been heard of. This letter was shown him, but he denied the charges therein. A letter was then written to his wife at Mayville, and the following answer came:

MAYVILLE, Ky., July 13th, 1894.
M. B. Haines: I received your letter today stating that the man who came out there by the name of James Samuels, it is James Samuels Beckett, and he is my husband and he has five living children. The children and I have to work very hard to make our living. As to a divorce, he has never got any. He left last April a year ago and nobody knows where he went nor what he left for. I don't know that myself. He said when he left home he would be back in a week, but I haven't seen him since. I have often thought he was dead, and as to him going to get married, I don't know what she wants with him, for he hasn't anything, and I think only a woman is worth for him to leave in the world with his poor little children, but thank the Lord, I am able to help them earn their living. I wash and iron for people, and I hope I will live to raise my children. I thank you for writing to me about him. I ask you to please answer this as soon as you get it, and let me know if it is still there or not, and if you want any further information concerning me or my children please write to my nearest neighbor, Mr. Rebecca Tolle, 148 East Third street, Mayville, Ky. My number is 1419 Chester street, Mayville, Ky., Sixth Ward. Yours truly,

MARY BECKETTE.

This about settled his hash, but he still denied it and insisted his name was James D. Samuels.

A day or so later the following letter came from Mayville:

July 15th, 1894.
Dear One: I received your kind letter today and was glad to hear from you, but sorry to hear you are not well, and hope this will cheer you up. I don't believe you would ever have written to me if I hadn't heard where you were and wrote to you. We are all well at this time. Jim, if you are sick, come closer home, and when I hear from you again, I will tell you more. Jim, take care of your self, and if you get sick come home to us.

your family; there's one who will take care of you. We were glad to hear from you. The children are all at work. They were all glad to hear from you. Jim, if you go away from where you are, write to me and tell me what you think of doing. Don't ramble any further away. The children all send their love to you. Jim, write just as soon as you get this. Jim, you ask me to give you news. Hoping to hear from you soon, good night. Write soon.

This letter, though it bore no name as to whom it was written and no signature by the writer, was undoubtedly from his wife. The envelope was addressed to "James S. Beckett," and the widow was fully satisfied that this was his true name, and that he had a wife and children, and decided at once to stick to Uncle Sam and his $12 and drop Beckett. She then demanded $30 board bill he owed her, and $10 borrowed money he had got of her at various times, when he said a farmer out in the country still owed him, and he would go out and get the money and pay her. This was Monday last week, and he has not been seen since. He told a friend here he was going to Indianapolis to ramble away for the Parry Manufacturing Co. He has not been seen or heard of since. The widow lady thinks she was fortunate to escape even this—only $40 out for her experience.

TOO LATE

Was the Message That Went to Chief Deitch at Cincinnati.

The following was taken from yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer:

Titie McDaniel, the young woman who was found drunk on Third street and looked up for safe keeping, was in the Police Court again yesterday morning. When she faced the Court all eyes were upon her. She pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sent downstairs. After Court she was brought up. Judge Gregg told her that if she was ever brought before him again he would send her to the workhouse. He then let her go. An hour later the following message was received at Police Headquarters:

AREDEEN, Ohio, August 16, 1894.

Chief Deitch: Want particulars of Titie McDaniel. If able send her home. Answer.

JAMES S. McDANIELS.

An officer went to find Titie, but he could not locate her. At No. 74 Grand place the landlady said that she did not live there. The police will pick her up again in a day or so, as she appears to be a slave to drink or some drug.

The young woman referred to in the above was at one time a clerk in a store in this city, and the name she went by here was Brookover.

She has been in Cincinnati for some time, and from the tone of the above it would indicate that she was an old offender, as she has certainly been in the Police Court before.

We are in hopes that she will be found and returned to her people, and it may be that she can be saved.

A Salvation Army recruit testified that "he had been arrested 731 times in his life," and if that be the case there are hopes for this forlorn woman.

General Manager Stevens and his private car was a necessary attachment to No. 4 last evening.

A Democratic barbecue will be given near by Bluebirds just west of the River in county line, on Saturday, September 1st.

Sam May, a tough of Vanceburg, wanted to see a young lady home from church, when she refused and he struck her in the face.

The purchase of the chair factory in the penitentiary by the state seems to have been a good investment. It afforded a revenue of $1,000 the past month.

The Shelbyville city clubs must indeed be hard up for funds with which to run the city Government. A new ordinance imposes a tax on all entertainments which charge money at the door, and this includes the Shelbyville Hop Club, a social organization composed of the most prominent young people in the city.

Peach Puffers.
Feed the peaches, - Crawford's are the best, - eat them in quarters, sugar them, and dip in thick batter; fry in hot lard. If your food distresses you after eating, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will give tone and strength to your digestive organs, improve your appetite and enable you to eat without fear of the pains which follow indigestion.

LAID TO REST

Were the Remains of the Late Frank Means Yesterday Afternoon.

All that was mortal of Frank Means was laid to rest yesterday afternoon. Frank Means was born August 10th, 1838, in this city and he became a Christian, a member of the Maywell Church, at the age of 25. He moved to Bellevue, Ky., where he had a wide circle of Christian friends. There he lived and studied to become an architect, but his mind became dethroned from reason from some unknown cause. The poor, unfortunate boy realized his situation and went to Lakeland Asylum for the insane. There he remained for seven months. He died on the 13th of August. He was visited by his sister while he remained at Lakeland, and all was done that was possible to have his mind restored by his loving parents.

The Knights took full charge of his remains, and he was buried with their polite honors.

Mr. J. S. Means and daughter return sincere thanks to the K. of P. and all friends whose displayed kindness was in sympathy.

THE RIPLEY FAIR.

A Heterogeneous Colling of Who, What and How in Attendance.

About 4,000 people were in attendance at the Ripley Fair yesterday, including the tin race course.

The fairs were there in full force also. The tin rings were magnificent - just the very best saddle, harness and combined horses. The contests for premiums were spirited, interesting and exciting. All the big guns of Ripley loomed up among them. Most conspicuous was the handsome face and form of Colonel L. L. Williams. Many rumors are afloat to the effect that he is Ohio's choice and stands a splendid show for being elected Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. at Pittsburg.

It was Kentucky Day, more than one third of the crowd being from that state. All trains were loaded from both ways, and the "ballone" went up, carrying a parachute. Life preservers, a rope, at whose end dangled a man. The atmosphere being favorable and clear the whole thing sailed up about 6,000 feet, when the man pulled the parachute loose and came down safely. There will be another ascension today at 4:30.

The heavy firm of T. S. Thompson & Co. showed a magnificent specimen of the French Coach Horse. Of course it got the prize.

Quite an accident happened to one driver during a ring of harness horses. Six vehicles were in ring, and a trial of speed was being given. The curves are constant and short, and one man (who afterwards drew the premium) was upset and dragged some forty feet, never losing his presence of mind or the reins. He was soon up again in his seat, driving his mare - a beautiful one and a fast one - to the plaudits of the crowd and to the carrying-off of the ribbon.

Leonard G. Cox and Miss Margaret Roberts of Lexington, away up in society, were married Wednesday by Rev. E. L. Southgate.

Ex-Governor Simon Boliver Buckner and his attorneys, Messrs. John Yerkes of Danville, and John Barrett of Louisville, were at Harrodsburg Wednesday to settle a claim of $17,000 owing to ex-Governor by Col. Amos McCampbell, of Louisville, who gave a mortgage for same on his Blue Grass farm of over five hundred acres in that county. Messrs. Roser and Coleman bid the $17,000 on 330 acres, or a little over $48 per acre. Col. McCampbell has 190 acres and the residence left.

The Free List Tariff Laid Away By the Senate.

A Motion to Refer Them to the Finance Committee Passes.

This Ends All Possibility of Any Further Tariff Legislation This Session - and Not Likely to Act on the Tariff Bill For Several Days to Come.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—When the free sugar bill was called up at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon to refer it to the Finance committee by a vote of 32 to 18. The other bills followed. This ends all possibility of any further tariff legislation at this session of congress.

With the bills to the committee went all amendments which have been offered to them, including Mr. Aldrich's proposition to repeal the "sugar trust bill," Mr. Manderson's amendment for a bounty on domestic sugar, Mr. Jones' proposition to tax sugar 30 per cent. ad valorem on all grades and Mr. Quay's proposition to re-enact the McKinley law.

The Finance committee had a brief session Thursday, and agreed to meet again Friday morning and go through the form of considering the bills. Even should the committee go so far as to report a free sugar bill, Mr. Aldrich's amendment would be immediately offered, and the chances of its adoption are so strong that the democrats of the Finance committee will, doubtless, be wise enough not to touch such a bill.

The Senate adjourned till Monday, having heard that President Cleveland's trip to Buzzard's bay would last until Tuesday.

The president must return to Washington next week if he is able, as the sundry civil and deficiency appropriation bills await his action. The democrats of the Finance committee will, doubtless, be wise enough not to touch such a bill.

A Family Feud.
SHERSTON, Mo., Aug. 17.—A feud which has existed for years between the Pardon and Albright families, residing near Dunbar's Switch, four miles east of this city, culminated Wednesday night in a general riot. The fight took place at a private meeting being held at the Swiss church. Knives, railroad spikes and clubs were the weapons used. Henry Albright, father of the family, was beaten to death. Burd Pardon's body was cut almost in two, and he died Thursday morning. John and Newton Pardon, Clay Northern and four sons of Albright received serious injuries. Sheriff Tanner secured some of the rioters, and is searching for the others.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—At 8 o'clock Thursday night Wm. Haglin, aged 20, shot two brothers, John and Patrick Brennan, who were shot squarely in the forehead, and is mortally wounded. Patrick was shot in the groin and forehead, and is dangerously wounded. John was shot in the arm and leg, and is recovering. The murderer was at liberty under heavy bail. He made his escape Thursday night.

A Pious Servant Girl.
WARRICK, Ind., Aug. 17.—Burgars entered the residence of Charles Wanner, maker, in this city, Wednesday night, but in the kitchen they encountered Miss Mary McKinnon, a domestic, who she and the robbers commenced shooting, and five shots were exchanged without anyone being hit. The desperadoes, however, were compelled to flee, and the young woman fainted as soon as they disappeared.

Was It Suicide or Accident?
CANTON, O., Aug. 17.—Middlebranch has a mysterious death. Michael Malon, a widower, had been disappointed in love and threatened suicide. He was found dead under the window of his second story room at the hotel. Whether he fell or threw himself out is unknown, but the latter is suspected.

A Confessed Firebug Arrested.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 17.—J. M. Logan, a confessed firebug, was arrested here Thursday. He says he has been setting fires in various towns over the country for some years. He mentioned Providence, R. I., and Rock Island as places he had started his biggest fires. He glories in the recital of his incendiarism.

Relay Races in England.
LONDON, Aug. 17.—A bicyclist left London at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning with dispatches for Edinburgh. The dispatches will be carried by relays. Carriers have been stationed all along the route between the two cities. The answers, which will be returned by the same system, are expected to reach here by Saturday noon.

Shot His Father Dead.
CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17.—At Riverside, Ky., Edwin Lemasters and his wife indulged in a dispute, the woman finally threatening her husband with a shotgun. Upon the husband's threat to knock her down if she did not drop the weapon, a son shot his father dead. The boy escaped, but if caught will be hanged.

Lincoln's Friend Cook Dying.
CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Bertson C. Cook is dying at his home in Evanston from a disease of the brain. Mr. Cook was once a man of national fame, and was a close friend of Abraham Lincoln, whom he placed in nomination for the presidency in August, 1864. He was born in Pittsford, N. Y., in 1819.

QUESTION OF PUNCTUATION.

One of Great Interest to Wearers of Diamonds.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The copy of the tariff bill in possession of the chairman of the house committee, by which the bill sent to the president was compared and verified and which is regarded as unquestionably the same as the president's copy, contains the following paragraph in the free list:

Free list 467, diamonds, miners' glass, and engravers' diamonds, not cut and diamond dust sold to be used in the manufacture of watches and clocks. It is the semi-colon after the word diamonds, in the beginning of the paragraph that is considered of such importance. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, insists that the semi-colon will not be construed so as to admit all diamonds free of duty. The intention, he said, was to have the word diamonds made semi-head and the mistake of a semi-colon instead of a colon will not be allowed to admit diamonds free, and especially when construed with the jewelry schedule which excludes "uncut precious stones of all kinds, ten per centum ad valorem."

Senator Jones says the words quoted, taken in connection with the intended to make the word "diamonds" in the free list as a sub-head, will be construed to make diamonds subject to the duty on precious stones.

"Secretary Carlisle is too good a lawyer to construe the act in any other way," remarked the Arkansas senator. The statements of customs officers of the treasury department to the Associated Press representative Wednesday, however, differ from Senator Jones. They assert that the strict letter and punctuation of tariff bills are followed by the courts. It is thought quite probable that the matter eventually may have to be settled by judicial construction of the mooted point, provided, of course, that a curative act be not passed by congress before the new tariff becomes a law.

'FRISCO IMPORTERS
Ready to Take Heavy Consignments Out of Bond.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The importers here are anxiously awaiting the expiration of ten days when the tariff bill will become a law. For six months they have been piling up dutiable goods in the eight bonded warehouses and five bonded yards. The goods in bond in these places are valued at over $2,000,000. $2,000,000, and include spirits, opium, rice, dry goods, tin and imported wines. Several vessels are also on the way with goods which were ordered in the belief that the tariff bill would be passed. Several large importers have been ordered to pay duties on goods, and they have been placed in the dilemma of seeing summer pass with no chance of securing reduced duties. One Sam Jones, who is a collector of duties on these goods, as they will be withdrawn under the reduced schedule of duties, which will be taken effect the day before the bill becomes a law.

GANG OF ROBBERS
Caught at Millersburg, O., After Months of Work.

MILLERSBURG, O., Aug. 17.—For several years a band of organized robbers have been breaking into residences in this county, tying the inmates and by the aid of their men, have been robbing their money and valuables. Last winter Peter Painter, a wealthy citizen of Holmesville, was robbed in this way. The three young men from Woodstock and two from Frederickburg, named Barnes and Pink. They will be brought here to jail.

Confessed Murderer Escapes.
WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 17.—John Elmsinger, the convicted murderer of Samuel McCoy, who has been confined in the county jail since his sentence to life, availing the date of the date of execution, escaped and has left no trace of his going. Elmsinger shot and killed McCoy, robber of $300, after having been befriended by him in many ways, and spent the day before the killing at McCoy's house.

New London Club's Big Offer.
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The following special cable dispatch from London was received Wednesday: "The National club will give a £3,000 guarantee purse for a finish fight between Corbett and Jackson. Referee to be mutually agreed upon by both men and club." The first fight this season will be between Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," and John O'Brien, the Welsh champion, on October 1.

Goods in Bonded Warehouses.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—An important provision of the new tariff bill is that which allows the manufacture for exportation of any article or class of goods in a bonded warehouse from imported materials. The action of McKinley bill only medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumery, cosmetics, and other liquors can be so manufactured.

Rain Saved the Crops.
MOAWEQUA, Ill., Aug. 17.—Reports from Shelby, Christian and Moultrie counties say that the crop is practically made. The recent rains were all that was needed. The yield will be the largest for several years.

King of Siam Dies.
VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 17.—Dispatches from steamer Tacoma announce the death of the king of Siam. H. M. S. fleet has been dispatched to the waters to anticipate possible trouble over the succession.

Alleged Victim Discovers.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17.—The officials at the Japanese legation say that they have heard nothing to the effect that seven Chinese vessels were sunk by the torpedo boat on August 10 or 11. The report is discredited.
